THE BREVITY BASKET.

Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

Wednesday Mrs. S. A. Scaggs, postmistress at Benning's, was attacked by a victous dog, which tore her dress into shreds and badly bruised one of her limbs.

The well-known attorney, B. T. Hanley, has the case of Capt. Thomason, of the Veteran corps, in hand against Lieut. Harri-son, and not T. M. Hanson, as published. A colored woman named Martha Elton found policeman's revolver, No. 13,043, somewhere on the road between Georgetown and Ten-nallytown, and took it to the station house in that preginct.

The German-American Fire Insurance company re-elected its old board of trustees, as follows: Herman Gasch, F. J. Helierger, C. G. Lederer, Philip May, Wm. G. Metzerott, C. B. Pearson, George F. Schafer, Conrad Schæfer, and E. A. Ridgway. To-morrow the officers will be elected.

A little colored girl, about 7 years old, named Eleanora West, living in Draper's alley, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets southwest. Wednesday night, while asleep, fell from the second story window to the pavement. She was taken to Dr. Charles V. Boarman, who pronounced her injuries to be very sardors. very serious. The Washington Harmonic company, an

The Washington Harmonic company, an organization of colored vocalists, comprising Misses Amelia L. Tilghman, Kate H. Siade, Blanche Washington, Sarah H. Jurix, and Amelia Wallace, and Messra, John T. Lane, Albert Butler, F. Walker, and John T. Layton, left last night on a concert tour north. The object is to raise funds for the new Metropolitan African M. E. church of this city.

The funeral of the late Col, Davis W. Bai'ey, The funoral of the late Cel. Davis W. Bailey, who died on the Baltimore and Ohio railway train, teok place yesterday afternoon from his late residence. The funeral services were held at the house, at which were gathered a number of relatives and friends. At the conclusion of the corremonies the remains were taken to the Baltimore and Potomac depot, and later in the evening left for Holyoke, Mass., where they will be interred.

Quite a little breeze was raised in the po-lice court yesterday when Mr. D. W. Lewis complained that he had been unable to secure the service on witnesses for the defense in a case in which he was retained, and said that the police and bailiff had failed to help. The court said that no bailiff should refuse to serve a subpœua. Mr. Lewis said that Bailiff Revels had refused to help him. Mr. Revels denied the charge emphatically, saying that it was malicious and false.

The work of dredging the river is progress-ing satisfactorily under the contractors, Messrs. Sauford & Ross. A force of workmen Messrs. Sanford & Ross. A force of workmen is also engaged in preparing the huge brush mats, made of saplings and young undergrowth trees, and sinking them on the line of the future retaining wall, preparatory to commencing the foundations of the same, south of the long bridge. These immense mats require large quantities of young growth which are brought from the forests and swamps of Virginia for the purpose, and admirably serve the purpose.

A Pleasant Wedding. McKendree M. E. church was we'l filled Puesday afternoon to witness the marriage ceremony of Fannie, the accomplished daughter of T. S. Gartrell, and granddaughter of John C. Harkness, of New York avenue. The John C. Harkness, of New York avenue. The groom, George B. Israel, son of the Rev. G. W. Israel, of Maryland, and a graduate of Carlisle, also of the law department, Columbian university, is the professor of chemistry in the high school of this city. The church was handsomely trimmed in tropical plants and other exotics, giving the church the appearance of a perfect bower. The bridal party, preceded by the ushers, Messrs. Raney, Appold, and Moran, of Baltimore, and G. W. Stokes, of New Jersey, entered the church to Appoid, and Moran, of Baltimore, and G. W. Stokes, of New Jersey, entered the church to the strains of "Mendelssohn's Wedding March," performed by Miss Lute Ramsey. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Edwards, assisted by the Rev. Alex Bielaski. Mr. and Mrs. Israel have gone on a bridal tour, to be absent until September.

A Senator's Duty.

United States Senator from North Carolina, Hon. M. W. Ransom, writes as follows: "I take very great pleasure in commending Dr. Worthington's Cholers and Dlarrhoa Medicine. Dr. Worthington was a gentleman of eminent skill in his profession. I have observed for thirty years the effects of his med-icine. It is my duty to state that it has proved an almost infallible remedy."

Police Court Notes.

Charles Coilins has gone to jail for sixty days for striking Frank Eaton on the head. Thomas Burton was fined $5 for throwing stones.

John Young was guilty of disorderly conduct and fined $5.

Edward and Annie Spear were run in for being found asleep in a vacant lot, but were released on personal bonds to leave the city.

Madame Tapp, whose house was raided Thesday night, was fined $25 for keeping a bawdy house. A previous fine of $25 was also collected.

William Seabreeze was fined $5 for assaulting James Miller.

Jacob D. Kitch was charged with cruelty to animals, and the case was continued until to-day on $20 collateral.
Thomas Johnson forfeited $40 collateral for fast driving and for carrying a pistol.
